CAUTIONS AHEAD TO FOR PAY

By the Associated Press.

The Red Cross relief committee for the Mississippi flood sufferers has issued a warning to the public to be careful in the matter of contributions. The committee says that it has been informed that a number of persons are soliciting funds in the name of the Red Cross, and that it has not authorized any one to solicit funds in its name